

ALASKA TRIBAL COURT CODE DEVELOPMENT TRAINING

Funded by

Bureau of Indian Affairs,
Offices of Justice Services,
Tribal Justice Support

Hosted by

Aleut Community of St. Paul

Presented by

American Indian
Development Associates

Date: June 5-7, 2018

Location: BP Energy Center, Anchorage, AK

Overview: The Training goal is to provide practical knowledge and skills that Alaska Native Tribes can use to develop or amend tribal laws, codes and rules that will either initiate formal court procedures or enhance existing ones.

Who Should Attend?

- Tribal Council Members
- Tribal Administrators
- Tribal Judges, Prosecutors & Defense
- Court Administrators & Staff
- Tribal Program Staff
- Tribal Community Members
- Individuals working for tribes or organizations serving Alaskan Natives, Tribes or citizens

Registration Fee: There is no cost to attend the training. We encourage attendees to register early as seating is limited.

Questions? Call (800) 701-4792 or
Email: dana@aidainc.net

Learn more at: www.aidainc.net